I understand that my rescue person, Kelli Garcia, Save the Pets AZ, or any of the "foster parent" homes cannot and does not make any representation of warranties, either expressed or implied concerning the temperament, habits, health, pedigree, disposition, sex, or background of this animal and that I have no rights to reimbursement of medical or professional fees. Furthermore, I understand that the animals' future reactions to me, my family, or any other persons are completely unpredictable because animals can and do have their own personalities. I also assume full responsibility to provide proper food, water, shelter, veterinary care, exercise, and an overall safe environment for the life of this animal. Animals should never be left unattended in a motor vehicle at any time.

In consideration of receiving this animal the adopting party hereby releases Kelli Garcia, Save the Pets AZ, as well as any of the previous "foster parent" homes from any claims of liability to anyone for injuries or damage caused to them or others' property now and for the life of the animal.

By initialing here I acknowledge that if at any time for any reason the adopting party does not or cannot comply with the provisions of this agreement, needs of the animal or state and city laws governing animals, the adopting party agrees to return the animal to Kelli Garcia: serving as and for Save the Pets AZ and forfeits all fees and expenses associated with the animal.

If you choose to adopt, you must comply with and keep all medical appointments, including the spay/neuter appointment that have been set or provided by Kelli Garcia/Save the Pets AZ. Failure to do so will negate the terms of this contract.

You are subject to a home visit.
